RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation:—

An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year, in writing, to the Secretary of the War Office. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from the Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from the Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself.

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation, will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

Reserve Officers accepting service under any Government Department, County, Borough, or Municipal Authority, should notify the fact to the Secretary of the War Office as soon as possible.

[Officers whose names are printed in Italics are not immediately available for Army Service though liable to be recalled thereto.]

[Officers marked thus ‡ are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.]

TERRITORIAL FORCE RESERVE.

The attention of Officers of the Territorial Force Reserve is particularly directed to the following regulation:—

Officers of the Territorial Force Reserve will be required to report in writing to the Officer Commanding the unit to which they are attached, annually on the 1st July. Should they fail to do so before the end of the year, they may be removed from the Territorial Force Reserve.

Territorial Force Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with these regulations will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year, and any subsequent change of address should at once be notified to the Officer Commanding.

FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 18th February, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the grant of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers and Men for their conspicuous acts of bravery and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Lieutenant-Colonel Ernest Wright Alexander, 119th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous bravery and great ability at Elouges on 24th August, 1914, when the flank guard was attacked by a German corps, in handling his battery against overwhelming odds with such conspicuous success that all his guns were saved, notwithstanding that they had to be withdrawn by hand by himself and three other men. This enabled the retirement of the 5th Division to be carried out without serious loss.

Subsequently, Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander (then Major) rescued a wounded man under a heavy fire, with the greatest gallantry and devotion to duty.

6535 Drummer William Kenny, 2nd Battalion, The Gordon Highlanders.

For conspicuous bravery on 23rd October, near Ypres, in rescuing wounded men on five occasions under very heavy fire in the most fearless manner, and for twice previously saving machine guns by carrying them out of action.

On numerous occasions Drummer Kenny conveyed urgent messages under very dangerous circumstances over fire-swept ground.

Lieutenant James Anson Otho Brooke, 2nd Battalion, The Gordon Highlanders.

For conspicuous bravery and great ability near Gheluvelt on the 29th October, in leading two attacks on the German trenches under heavy rifle and machine gun fire, regaining a lost trench at a very critical moment. He was killed on that day.

By his marked coolness and promptitude on this occasion Lieutenant Brooke prevented the enemy from breaking through our line, at a time when a general counter-attack could not have been organised.

Captain John Franks Vallentin, 1st Battalion, The South Staffordshire Regiment.

For conspicuous bravery on 7th November at Zillebeke. When leading the attack against the Germans under a very heavy fire he was struck down, and on rising to continue the attack was immediately killed.

The capture of the enemy's trenches which followed was in a great measure due to the confidence which the men had in their Captain, arising from his many previous acts of great bravery and ability.

Lieutenant Frank Alexander de Pass, late 34th Prince Albert Victor's Own Poona Horse.

For conspicuous bravery near Festubert on the 24th November, in entering a German sap and destroying a traverse in the face of the enemy's bombs, and for subsequently rescuing, under heavy fire, a wounded man who was lying exposed in the open.

Lieutenant de Pass lost his life on this day in a second attempt to capture the afore-mentioned sap, which had been re-occupied by the enemy.

No. 11340 Private Henry Howey Robson, 2nd Battalion, The Royal Scots (Lothian Regiment).

For most conspicuous bravery near Kemmel on the 14th December, 1914, during an attack on the German position, when he left his trench under a very heavy fire and rescued a wounded Non-commissioned Officer, and subsequently for making an attempt to bring another wounded man into cover, whilst exposed to a severe fire: In this attempt he was at once wounded, but persevered in his efforts until rendered helpless by being shot a second time.

No. 8155 Private James Mackenzie, late 2nd Battalion, Scots Guards.

For conspicuous bravery at Rouges Bancs on the 19th December, in rescuing a severely wounded man from in front of the German trenches, under a very heavy fire and after a stretcher-bearer party had been compelled to abandon the attempt.

Private Mackenzie was subsequently killed on that day whilst in the performance of a similar act of gallant conduct.

Lieutenant Philip Neame, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous bravery on the 19th December, near Neuve Chapelle, when, notwithstanding the very heavy rifle fire and bomb-throwing by the enemy, he succeeded in holding them back and rescuing all the wounded men whom it was possible to move.

No. 10694 Private Abraham Acton, 2nd Battalion, The Border Regiment.
No. 6473 Private James Smith, 3rd Battalion, The Border Regiment (attached 2nd Battalion).

For conspicuous bravery on the 21st December, at Rouges Bancs, in voluntarily going from their trench and rescuing a wounded man who had been lying exposed against the enemy's trenches for 75 hours, and on the same day again leaving their trench voluntarily, under heavy fire, to bring into cover another wounded man.

They were under fire for 60 minutes whilst conveying the wounded men into safety.

No. 8566 Lance-Corporal Michael O'Leary, 1st Battalion, Irish Guards.

For conspicuous bravery at Cuinchy on the 1st February, 1915. When forming one of the storming party which advanced against the enemy's barricades he rushed to the front and himself killed five Germans who were holding the first barricade, after which he attacked a second barricade, about 60 yards further on, which he captured, after killing three of the enemy and making prisoners of two more.

Lance-Corporal O'Leary thus practically captured the enemy's position by himself, and prevented the rest of the attacking party from being fired upon.

Clasp to Victoria Cross.

Lieutenant Arthur Martin Leake, Royal Army Medical Corps, who was awarded the Victoria Cross on 13th May, 1902, is granted a Clasp for conspicuous bravery in the present campaign:—

For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty throughout the campaign, especially during the period 29th October to 8th November, 1914, near Zonnebeke, in rescuing, whilst exposed to constant fire, a large number of the wounded who were lying close to the enemy's trenches.

Lieutenant Frederick John Harington, 2nd Battalion, The Prince of Wales's Own (West Yorkshire Regiment)

For conspicuous gallantry on the 18th December, 1914, when, accompanied by four men (all of whom were shot), he carried out a very successful attack on the enemy with bombs, under very heavy fire.

Captain Claude Alexander Lafone, 2nd Battalion, The Devonshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry on the night of 18th December, 1914, near Neuve Chapelle, in capturing a trench from the enemy.
